

Three-Day Retreat

The Three-Day Retreat is our ultimate learning experience! It is designed for individuals who desire a more intensive training session. The program runs from 9 a.m. to 5 p.m. daily. All aspects of the game are covered, including 9 holes of on-course instruction, complete full swing and short game training, a one-hour session with our mental efficiency trainer, a personal static club fitting and a complimentary gift bag.

No matter what you currently shoot, when you are looking for the ultimate in dramatic game improvement and lasting results the three day retreat is for you. This school runs from 9am to 5pm daily and offers our most intensive instruction and covers all aspects of the game. While we focus on the parts that YOU want to improve the most, here's a look at what your day might include.

Typically your instructor will devote two days to full-swing instruction and one day to the development of your short game. The school also includes extensive video and computer analysis, a club fitting evaluation, as well as a specific plan for ongoing improvement on a take home DVD. Limited to 4 students per session you'll get the personal attention you needs for quick and lasting results with your game!
